VNS Hospice Volunteer Training Scheduled to Begin August 14

Trumbull, July 9, 2018: Visiting Nurse Services of Connecticut, the leading not-for-profit home healthcare and hospice provider for residents of Fairfield, New Haven and Litchfield counties, is offering complimentary volunteer training for its Medicare certified Hospice program. The once-a-week training will be held on Tuesdays commencing August 14 for six weeks (excluding September 4) from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm at VNS' Oxford office located at 84 Oxford Road, Oxford, CT 06478

Participants will be provided with a free and comprehensive training program which will allow them to choose a volunteer role which they are comfortable with, including administrative support, patient care and bereavement duties. VNS Hospice volunteers are assigned to VNS offices located in Oxford, Trumbull and Torrington, depending on which is most convenient or nearest their place of residence.

For additional information and to reserve a place, contact VNS' Hospice Volunteer Coordinator Dale Janoski at 203-330-5435 or djanoski@vnsct.org
